3,000 Music Students Compete in Contests

Approximately 3,000 area students are on campus this weekend to participate in the annual Northwest District Music Festival.

First entrants arrived Thursday to compete for the "I" ratings and the right to enter the state event. Judging will continue today and tomorrow.

Dr. John L. Smay, chairman of the Division of Music, serves as director of the Festival. Others on the faculty and music majors have prepared for entrants from 48 of the Missouri high schools in the 19-county college district.

Rules and regulations for the judging in all of the state districts are set up by the Missouri State High School Activities Association, Columbia.

Judges for the events include, vocal — Dr. Archie N. Jones, dean, and John L. Wanay, Conservatory of Music, University of Missouri, Kansas City; Robert C. Schupp, music instructor, Raytown High School; Kenneth D.

Tebow, minister of music, Old Mission Methodist Church, Shawnee Mission, Kas.; instrumental — Edward Lakin, Phillip Posey, instrumental director, both of William Jewell College, Liberty; Frank Piersol, director of bands, Iowa State University, Ames; Robert J. Rittenhouse, chairman of the Department of Music, Central College, Pella, Iowa; and piano, Dr. Gavin L. Dougherty, head of the Department of Music, Tarkio College.

All events except the large choral groups on Saturday are scheduled to be held in the Olive DeLuce Fine Arts Building.

'Evening's Frost' To Come to MSC

"An Evening's Frost" will be featured in Maryville at 8 p. m. Monday in the Administration Building Auditorium.

The program, a portrayal of the life of America's beloved Robert Frost through the gathering and editing of various writings, letters, and conversations with people, is performed by a professional touring company. Headed by stage and motion picture actor Will Geer, the company includes Jack Davidson, who plays the young Frost; Thomas Coley, the Narrator; and Anne Gee Byrd, the Woman.

In a review of the production, the New York Times said, "The touch of greatness! A warm portrayal of Robert Frost, an evening when the poet spins out his own story, the sweet and the following bitter, the tragedy and triumph, in words creating laughter, but even more than tears."

June will be "bustin' out all over" at the clambake in the Charles Johnson Theater the week of Apr. 10-15.

The Division of Music and the Departments of Physical Education and Speech and Drama have been rehearsing since February for NWMSC's biggest production of the 1966-67 season, Rodger and Hammerstein's widely acclaimed Carousel.

Carousel, adopted from Ferenc Molnar's "Lillom," takes place in New England in the 1880's. Billy Bigelow, the robust carnival barker, played by Mike Miller, marries the young, attractive Julie Jordan, Wendee Beam, who is too good for him, but loves him anyway.

Dolphins' Show Set for 3 Nights

Routines for the Dolphin Show scheduled for next week will be based on an event from each month of the year.

Each of the 12 numbers is directed by a designated member in the group. In charge of the show are Sondra Simons and Kerry Henry.

Kerry will perform a duet with Bob Puck for the month of June entitled "Wedding Bells." Sondra and Reanne Johnston have a duet number called "Cupid's Holiday." For November Sondra will also give a solo performance based on a theme of Homecoming at half time.

Another duet will be presented by Sue Crain and Cheryl Stone. It will be entitled "Our State Fair." Costuming will correspond with the event exhibited in each month. Mrs. Barbara Bernard is adviser to the students in the Dolphin Show.

Sue Dallman, a member of Sigma Phi Dolphin, will be helping behind the scenes as a result of an injury received in a recent automobile accident.

The Show will be held in Martindale Gymnasium at 8 p. m. Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday.

Fine Arts Students to Present 'Carousel'

Everyone else about the first clambake of the season because, as the song says, "June Is Bustin' Out All Over." Carrie, though, has a special reason for her feelings: She and Enoch Snow, Jack Estes, are to be married next Sunday.

Carousel has a dramatic climax and a tragic end, amidst the joys of young love. Billy is thinking about his young son, soon to be born, as he sings the famous "Soliloquy." But what if his son is a daughter? Billy decides to become the respectable father that his daughter would be proud to call "Daddy."

He and Jigger Craigin, however, plan to make their fortune by robbery. They fall here, too. Billy, not wanting to degrade his wife and unborn daughter any more than he has already, commits suicide.

Martha Clothier as Aunt Nettie comforts Julie with the well-known song of hope and faith, "You'll Never Walk Alone."

Tickets will go on sale Monday in the main office of the Speech and Drama Department, Room 115, first floor Administration Building. All seats must be reserved in advance. Cost for a student admission is $1 plus identification card.

Directors for the first drama production in the theater of the Olive DeLuce Fine Arts Building are Dr. Ralph Fulsom, producer; Rod Wilson, assistant production; Dr. John Smay, coordinator of music; Byron Mitchell, director of vocal music; Dr. Donald Sandford, orchestra; Kerry Lafferty, scene design and technical work; Mrs. Ann Brekke, choreography and dance, and Miss Lois Loveland, assistant dance.

Kappa Omicron Phi Honors Upperclassmen

Christensen, Linda Scott, Rita Bissell, Kathy Barham, and Miss Mabel Cook, sponsor. Meta Adams was not present when the picture was taken.

Hostesses for the new honoree initiation were Kappa Omicron Phi members Gwenetha Girling, Patsy Edwards, Melanie Rawlins, Julie Faulstitch, Maribeth Annan, Karen Brady, Kathy Johnson, Mary Ann Combs, Miss Cook, and Ruth Carlock.

Tony Masters Chosen
Savannah Principal

Tony Masters, '60, will assume the duties of principal of Savannah Senior High School Apr. 1.

His teaching experience includes a year at Platte Valley elementary school, a year at Easton High School, and four years at Faust High School before coming to Savannah for two years as head basketball coach and assistant football coach.

National Leader
Inducts Debaters

Dr. Georgia Bowman, Liberty, national president of Pi Kappa Delta, honorary forensic fraternity, conducted the initiation and installation ceremonies for honored debaters at the annual banquet Mar. 20.

Phyllis Easterla, Maryville; Scott Hodgin, St. Joseph; Jim Hulse, Maryville; Cheri Jarowitz, Leavenworth, Kas.; Ruth Martin, Carroll, Iowa; Marlene Miller, Omaha, Neb.; Loring Miller, Leon, Iowa, and Richard Salewicz, St. Joseph, received instructions about the meaning of Pi Kappa Delta's motto: The art of persuasion, beautiful and just.

New officers installed at the banquet were Linda Hornaday, North Kansas City, president; Terri Lutz, Maryville, vice president; Miss Martin, secretary; Miller, treasurer; Miss Jarowitz, social chairman, and Marjorie Hitchcock, Atlantic, Iowa, reporter.

Dr. Bowman and Dr. Charles E. Koerble, dean of students at NWMSC, were guest speakers. Dr. Bowman told the students the history of their organization and discussed the national tournament ending today in Whitewater, Wis.

Dr. Koerble emphasized the importance of public speaking and reminded the debaters that they should be accurate and honest when using another person's words and ideas.

Mary Potter
To Lead AWS

Mary Potter has recently been elected to head the Associated Women Students for the coming year.

Other officers include Marlene Morris, first vice president; Chryl Crowley, second vice president; Jan Roberts, recording secretary; Nancy Pickett, corresponding secretary; Judy Palumbo, treasurer; Judy Branson, historian; Connie Seuell, Bearcub chairman, and Bobbie Dague, reporter.

Miss Potter, Miss Crowley, and Miss Morris attended the National Associated Women Students Convention at West Virginia University, Morgantown, recently.

LAST CALL, WRITERS

All students and staff members who wish to enter some of their writings in the Writer's Fair should do so within the next five days.

Reservations for the climaxing luncheon to be held at 12:30 Apr. 8 should be made with Mrs. Gary Fields.

Graduating Future Teachers Offered Credit Union Loans

Loans of up to $500 on signature and an additional $500 for each co-signer are now available to graduating seniors through the Northwest Missouri Teachers Credit Union.

The organization, which was incorporated in 1933, is able to furnish funds to seniors who have signed teaching contracts.

Interest is three-fourths per cent monthly on the unpaid balance on new car loans and one per cent on all other loans, available for all worthwhile purposes.

Membership in the Credit Union entails filling out a membership card, paying an entrance fee of 25 cents, and buying shares, each costing $5.00.

Another facet of the Credit Union's service includes a savings (share account) in which an account may be opened at any time, amount varying from $1,000.

Dividends derived from interest are paid according to the earnings of the Credit Union and credited annually Sept. 30. In recent years, they were 5.1 per cent for 1964, 5.6 per cent and 5.8 per cent in 1965 and 1966, respectively. A provision in each account up to $2,000 deposited before age 60 is covered by an equal amount of insurance.

The Credit Union wishes to extend its programs to individual needs and repayment capabilities with as much as a 36-months time limit for payment possible.

There exists a program within the Credit Union whereby beginning teachers may make minimum payments during the summer.

For additional information, contact Mr. Barratt, Credit Union, Maryville, or telephone 582-5747. Mr. Barratt's office hours this semester are 11-12 a. m. and 3-4 p. m.

Student Creativity
To Be Evaluated
At Art Conference

The first annual Missouri College Student Art Competition, sponsored by the Missouri State Council on the Arts, by the Missouri College Association, will be held April 6-7 at the Ellis Art Center, Southwest Missouri State College, Springfield.

The sixth annual conference of the Missouri College Association will meet in conjunction with the student competition.

From Northwest Missouri State College 10 paintings, 10 prints, and 4 drawings will be exhibited. Cash awards will be given for the best drawing, prints, with a first prize of $100, and for the best composition painting, with a first prize of $175.

David Durst, chairman of the Department of Art, University of Arkansas, will judge the student work. From NWMSC, those participating in the meeting will include Robert Sunkel, who is serving on the steering committee for the conference, and James Erickson, a member of the panel that will discuss "Print Making."

Dr. Robert Goldwater, professor in the Institute of Fine Arts, New York University, will be the main speaker at the conference. His address will be titled "Is Modern Art Primitive?"

Approximately 20 Missouri colleges will be represented at the meeting.

Psychology Club to Discuss Graduate School Problems

The Psychology Club will meet at 7:30 p. m. Monday for an informal discussion of graduate school, titled "Getting In and Staying In."

All interested students are cordially invited to attend.

Students Adopt New Constitution

Many NWMSC students made clear their opinions Mar. 16 and 17 by an impressive 10 to 1 margin when they voted to accept the revised constitution for the Student Government Association.

Because of a misunderstanding among students regarding the day to cast their ballots, the voting day was extended from Thursday to Friday. With two days to ballot, a few more than the necessary one-third of those eligible to vote did so.

The revamped constitution, drawn up under the diligent guidance of Fred Lazear, provides among other things wider representation, enlargement of the total membership of the Senate, and more stringent attendance requirements at the Senate meetings.

Others who helped draft the new laws are Cheri Jordan, Ed Lambright, and Jan Gray.

Franken Coeds Send Friendship Gifts

A friendship gift of $100 was collected by the women staying in Franken Hall and sent last week to the family of Nancy Coberley, who was overcome by carbon monoxide poisoning Mar. 15.

Miss Soberley, a sophomore at Northwest Missouri State College, has been transferred from St. Francis Hospital, Maryville, to University Medical Center, Kansas City.

According to Paula Weston, Residence Hall Council president, Miss Coberley's condition remains critical.

Hitchcock Thriller To Be Shown Tonight

Alfred Hitchcock has done it again.

His movie "Psycho," which should not be seen by those under emotional strain, will be shown at 7 p. m. tonight in the Administration Building.

The story is that of a young woman who steals a fortune and encounters a young man too long under the domination of his mother. It is an electrifying shocker laid against the eerie background of an isolated motel and a brooding Victorian mansion.

Homecoming Meeting Open to All Groups

The first Homecoming planning committee meeting will be at 4 p. m. Tuesday in Room 259 of the Fine Arts Building.

Organizations interested in participating are urged to send delegates. Anyone who has questions about the meeting may contact Donald Robertson, over-all chairman.

Also attending are faculty members Miss Anna Gorsuch, Miss Kathryn McKee, and Miss Chloe Millikan, member of the NWMSC emeritus faculty.

Just Because It's Spring, Spring, Spring

With spring officially here, midterm examination worries past, and Easter vacation behind them, students at Northwest Missouri State College can finish the semester in romance amid the happiness and freshness of sunshine and flowers.

There's walkout day with all its excitement. There are the lazy hours of basking in the sun and picnicking at the state parks. There are the awe, the excitement, the sadness, the inspiration of graduation.

Walks in the rain, moments alone in the dark, long talks with friends, hours at the tennis courts, time for young love to blossom—all are the promises of April and May. All are the truths of the poet's words, "June in her eyes, in her heart January."

Editors Announce 'Letter Policy'

It will be the future policy of the Northwest Missourian staff to accept no letters to the editor which express disapproval of people. Criticism of ideas may be submitted.

When commenting on an article which appeared in a previous issue of the Northwest Missourian, the writer should refer to the article, not the author of that article.

Also letters to the editor should be backed by facts, should be no longer than 100 to 125 words, and should be written in good taste. Signed; however, the staff will withhold names on request, although it prefers to print letters with authors' names.

Dr. Dreps has an impressive background in foreign language studies. He was graduated cum laude with a double major in French and Spanish and received his AB degree from the University of Wisconsin in 1921. He added two years of training in Norwegian.

While acquiring his PhD at the State University of Iowa in 1931, Dr. Dreps was awarded the only non-teaching fellowship for excellence in scholarship in advanced foreign language graduate work. He studied French, Spanish, and Italian, and he completed his doctoral dissertation in Spanish.

At St. Olaf College, Northfield, Minn., Dr. Dreps did post graduate research in the Norwegian language in 1942. He undertook further study in Norwegian at the University of Oslo, Norway in the summer of 1960.

Dr. Dreps served one year as a teacher in a small rural school in Wisconsin; one year in a state graded school; four years as an instructor of French and Spanish at the University of North Dakota; three years as chairman of the Department of Foreign Languages at Des Moines University; seven years at the University of South Dakota, as an instructor.

Commenting on the teaching techniques for foreign languages, Dr. Dreps said he would like to see "further emphasis on the great aid of language lab work in furtherance of acquisition of conversational ability on the part of the stu-

• The astronauts and some NWMSC faculty members are in agreement about an effective way to keep physically fit.

The Telegraph - Herald of Dubuque, Iowa, has recently been carrying a series of articles concerning the physical fitness program of the U. S. astronauts.

According to the Herald, the astronauts, when left to their own choice, usually choose handball as a primary means of keeping fit. Dr. Charles Berry, medical director of Houston's Manned Spacecraft Center, is pleased with their choice because handball is an exerting sport that brings most of the body's muscles into use.

The personal trainer of the astronauts, Joe Garino, thinks that the competition and exercise resulting from handball are good for morale, balance and reflexes.

• Lamkin Gymnasium contains two handball courts which are in constant use each day. Therefore, the possibility of additional courts certainly deserves careful consideration in any future athletic facilities for NWMSC. . . .

Blue Key Honors Senior Grappler

Ron James, Chariton, Iowa, has been selected as Blue Key Man of the month for March.

Ron James

Heading the reasons for his selection were his wrestling achievements. James ranked fifth in the nation among college grapplers three years ago.

James recently earned third place in the National Collegiate Athletic Association College-Division wrestling finals. The senior wrestling co-captain is now a 1967 NCAA Coaches' All-American.

Blue Key honors a campus leader each month for his outstanding accomplishments.

• Recently, the advantages of badminton have been realized in the U. S., and it is gaining in popularity. A very competitive sport, it has been proven to be faster and more tiring than tennis.

In the past decade, professional badminton has been dominated by Southeast Asia and the Far East. But such players as Stan Hales, ranked third in the U. S., have helped to bring it to light in the sports world of the Western Hemisphere.

The several badminton courts in Lamkin Gym are used quite extensively by both physical education classes and individuals. . . .

• Earlier this year, the National Football League formally adopted the new slingshot-type goal post for its teams. This goal post has only one standard instead of the old H-shaped posts formerly used. The standard will curve from its position six feet behind the goal line, so that the actual crossbar will be on the goal line as in the past.

Thus the sports world like the world of fashions is keyed to the "What's new, Joe?" approach.

Hager Wins Dash; 'Cats Take Fifth

Sophomore co-captain Pete Hager was the sole winner in the MIAA Indoor Track Meet recently at Columbia as Maryville placed fifth in a field of six.

Hager won the 60-yard dash with a 6.3 time — just one-tenth of a second off the conference record. He won this sprint and the 440-yard dash last year, but was only able to place fifth this year in the two-lap event.

Other 'Cats placing were Stan Carlson, fifth in the high jump, and the mile-relay team of Normal Howlett, Pete Meindertsma, Phil Frahm, and Hager, fourth. Frahm had missed practice three days because of the flu, and Meindertsma had an injured ankle.

Kirksville repeated as champion for the ninth consecutive time, winning the event with 67 2-3 points. Warrensburg took second with 39 1-3 points, and Maryville captured nine points.

"I wasn't disappointed with the performance of the team with the exception of the mile-relay team," Coach Earl Baker noted, "and I was well pleased with Hager's show-

Netmen Open Season With 8-1 Victory. Meet Park Today

After winning its initial match over Midwestern College, 8-1, Northwest Missouri State's varsity tennis team will travel today to Park College for a dual meet.

In its encounter with Midwestern, the Bearcats lost only in the No. 1 singles match where Midwestern's Pete Sheffield edged Bruce Horrell 6-3, 6-4.

Those winning for NWMSC were Dick Schilling, George Varchola, Jim Crozier, Paul Manhart, and Alan Coleman. Schilling and Horrell, Varchola and Coleman, and Manhart and John Braden teamed up to defeat their doubles' opponents.

Bob Schilling, No. 1 position player, missed the Midwestern match because of a bout with tonsilitis. Coach Robert Gregory hopes Schilling will be ready this afternoon for the dual with Park College.

Last year NWMSC posted a 9-6 record in dual meets and placed third in the conference.

The schedule is as follows:

Apr. 7—Washburn, there
Apr. 8—Wm. Jewell, here
Apr. 14—Graceland, here

Jerry Patee Heads AKL Fraternity

The Alpha Zeta Chapter of Alpha Kappa Lambda fraternity announces the election of Jerry Patee, Robert Brunker, and Lyle Stone to the posts of president, vice president, and treasurer, respectively.

Other appointments include Mike Abildrup, recording secretary; Ed Miller, corresponding secretary; Martin Janczak, house manager; Jerry Fischer and Dennis Hilger, members-at-large; John Rains, pledge educator; Kim Bowen, social chairman, and Dave Hill, rush chairman.

In addition, the spring pledge class has also selected officers. The leaders are Rex Mowrey, president; Jim Nelson, vice president, and Gary Wulf, treasurer.

Bearcat Hurlers, Infielders Inspire Optimism for 1967

The 1967 Bearcat baseball team starts its season Apr. 5 against Peru State with a beefed-up pitching staff and a hungry eye on the MIAA championship.

Coach Burton Richey, who is assisted by Coach Robert Iglesias, will have the services of 10 lettermen. Among these are three top pitchers from last year's squad. These hurlers are Scott Kurtz, Oregon; Vic Mitchell, Independence, and Don Orlowski, El Paso, Tex.

Kurtz, the most consistent winner on last year's team, which made a 5-3 record, posted an impressive 1.66 ERA. He also struck out 65 batters in 54 1-3 innings of mound work. Orlowski managed a 2-3 mark; he also had a good ERA of 1.89. Mitchell, who won only once in eight starts, rolled up a 3.85 ERA but seldom had the support of solid hitting.

Also helping out the hurling staff will be Ben Cain, a 2-year letterman who is returning to the mound after a year of action, and Don Sears, highly praised freshman from Des Moines.

Cain posted an over-all record of 8-3 with an ERA of 2.2 as a Bearcat. Sears comes to NWMSC with strong credentials from Des Moines Roosevelt High School and the Connie Mack League where he compiled a 30-2 record.

Although last year's team could only manage a .191 team batting average, Coach Richey is optimistic that a year's experience will help his young batters.

Another bright spot in the Bearcats' future is the fact that the entire 1966 infield will return to action this year. That infield includes Mike Kurtz at shortstop, Wayne Vierk at second base, Joe Spinello at third base, and either Don Hicks or Lou Mooney at first.

Only one reserve outfielder returns from last year — John Helsel, St. Joseph, who posted a promising .321 mark in brief appearances.

The entire squad this season will consist of 31 members, 10 infielders, 6 outfielders, 4 catchers, and 11 pitchers.

Coach Richey has scheduled eight junior varsity games this year including double headers at home and away with Creston, and at home and away with Clarinda.

The 1967 varsity baseball schedule is as follows:

Apr. 5—at Peru, Neb., State (2)
Apr. 8—Simpson College (2)
Apr. 11—at Creighton University (2.)
Apr. 14—Northeast Missouri State*.
Apr. 15—Northeast Missouri State* (2.)

Enthusiasm Displayed In 10-Week Programs

"Self-motivation training programs are still being met with enthusiasm," commented instructor Earl Baker about the men's 10-week PE 9 course, known by many students as the "Baker Special."

The conditioning program, designed to meet requirements for Coach Baker's doctoral paper concerning the conditioning effects of the programs, requires from seven to 12 minutes of the participants' time each of the three weekly periods. The three PE 9 classes have been split into intensified, regular circuit, and modified circuit groups.

After the completion of the course, Coach Baker will tabulate physical development in each of the programs and determine which of the programs best fits the needs for developing physical fitness.
